CLUE ONE!

Riddle Challenge:
Pitter patter, click and clack
Take a step! You're right on track
To find clue one, though there are two,
And they don't want to hide from you!
Wood and fabric standing by
To keep both feet all high and dry.

DID YOU FIND THE FIRST ANSWER?

Turn to the last page to check if you're right once you've found the other clues, too!
Picture Challenge: Where am I?

Hint:
Make sure to investigate the additional information and photo icons in the virtual tour to see all of the content!

DID YOU FIND THE SECOND ANSWER?

Turn to the last page to check if you're right once you've found the other clues, too!
Audio Challenge:

Can you find an audio recording of Camilla Williams singing "Oh, What a Beautiful City"?

Hint: Make sure your ambient sound and narration options are turned on in the virtual tour!
A pencil sweeps across the page
And captures singing on a stage,
A man, a woman, play their parts
To create art—within the art.

Riddle Challenge:

DID YOU FIND
THE FOURTH
ANSWER?

Turn to the last page to check if you're right once you've found the other clues, too!
Picture Challenge:
Can you locate President Eisenhower?

Hint: This might be a hard one to find! Don't forget to check the panels throughout the galleries.

DID YOU FIND THE FIFTH ANSWER?
Turn to the last page to check if you're right once you've found the other clues, too!
Audio Challenge:
Can you find an audio recording of Camilla Williams singing "City Called Heaven"?

Williams' performance of this song in college scored her some of the first competitive wins in her career!
Keyword Challenge:
Can you find where the exhibit talks about the Asantehene?

Where is the Asantehene from? How is the Asantehene related to Camilla Williams?
Picture Challenge: Where am I?

Did you find the eighth answer?

Hint: Make sure to investigate the additional information and photo icons in the virtual tour to see all of the content!
A stage, the songs, the glitz and glam
Of concerts in a distant land—
Eight nights of singers come and go,
And Camilla is a star of the show!
Vienna is the place to be,
But "Vienna" is not on the sign you see!
A remnant of a show now closed,
Can you find the sign, now posed?

Riddle Challenge:

Turn to the last page to check if you're right once you've found the other clues, too!
The last hint is a riddle, too—
Can you find our final clue?
A quote from Williams on the wall
On Danville when she was still small.
The world has changed so much, you see,
And Williams let her voice soar free
During a time when people tried
To push her special gifts aside.

Can you find a quote that shows
How much change in the world arose?

Turn to the last page to check if you're right once you've found the other clues, too!
ANSWER SHEET

1. Japanese wooden "geta" shoes in scene two, near the kimonos.
2. Porgy and Bess album cover, scene three, further detailed look at records.
3. "Becoming an Opera Prima Donna" panel details, scene two.
4. Sketch of Camilla Williams singing, detail panel, scene five.
5. "1960: An Invitation from Eisenhower" panel against the wall.
6. Gallery ambient sound, scene four.
7. Scene two, detail panel on kente cloth. The asantehene is the traditional ruler of Ghana.
8. Danville Music Study Club decorative award plate, scene four, on detail panel.
10. Scene one, Camilla Williams quote on the wall.

We hope you enjoyed the virtual scavenger hunt! Thank you so much for exploring our galleries and learning more about Camilla Williams.